Week 2: What about the end of life?

1. Summarise the main points from the video

2. Read James 4:13-17

- a. Who is speaking in verse 13?
- b. What important piece is missing from this business proposal in verse 13?
- c. James responds in verse 14 by speaking about life. What is our life like?
- d. In verse 15, what must be included into our plans?
- e. In verses 16 & 17, what are the two sins James addresses?

3. Think about some people in your life who have died abruptly. What were some of their achievements in life and what were their regrets?

4. If today was the day you died, what would you regret and why? What can you change about your life today to avoid these regrets?

5. When Francis Chan talks about being alone with God, how do you respond to those words? Can you relate? Do you walk with God, intimately and regularly? Or are your experiences with God usually mediated by something or someone (books, sermons, pastor's voice, fellowship, etc.)?

6. Francis Chan writes, "The point of your life is to point to Him. Whatever you are doing, God wants to be glorified, because this whole thing is His. It is His movie, His world, His gift." (46-47) what are you doing right now to point to Him? What part are you playing in His movie? What gift has He given you that He wants you to use for His glory?

Challenge for the Week: Commit to memorizing 1 Corinthians 10:31, "So whatever you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God."

Make a conscious effort to live with this verse in mind this week. Be ready to share with your group at your next meeting how this verse changed your routine this week.
